Dear Norm:

I sincerely appreciated your letter of September 29. I enjoyed our association in our work here and hope that our paths will cross often.

For the first few weeks at least after my departure from this desk, I shall be in Washington or off on a short holiday. I hope that we can get together and possibly have some tennis before the season closes.

Clover joins me in all best wishes to Bettie and to you.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
